

PRESS RELEASE: PRE-OPEN HOUSE

Another beauty is coming to The Hauslands!

Summer is coming, and so is Belle!

With all the hustle and bustle at work, it is true that everyone deserves a break! And what a better way to welcome the summer season than to try something NEW! Whether you embark on a new adventure, discover a new experience, or meet new people, they say everything is worth it if you spend it with your loved ones.

That's why this coming March 23, take your family and friends with you to The Hauslands – Pampanga because something new is waiting for you! And while you're at it, discover the beauty of this desirable community and appreciate its amenities, location and accessibility.

The Hauslands – Pampanga offers its exceptional and dual location since it is situated between City of San Fernando and Municipality of Mexico – just five minutes away from NLEX Mexico exit, major establishments such as malls, schools and hospitals. The Hauslands - Pampanga also brings the convenience of having recreational spaces, first-class amenities and dynamic neighborhood all in one community.

The model units Bree, Sab, Sue, Eve and Liz also offer an enticing kind of lifestyle that makes you and your family feel at home. Starting from the architecture, up to the details of the finishes, you will truly fall in love with your home.

And this coming weekend, as part of the open house, The Hauslands will welcome the first batch of homeowners into the community. A utility fair and unveiling of amenities will also be held during the 2-day event.

And of course, surprises don't end here. Get ready to have a closer look and get to know Belle: A dazzling and captivating beauty worth seeing. If you're wondering about her, join The Hauslands this coming weekend on their summer-themed open house. Get the chance to exclusively meet The Hauslands' next big thing.
